

Exeter Township School District

Elementary Library Curriculum

Scope and Sequence of Skills

Grades 5-6

Grade 5

Library Procedures:

Rights and responsibilities
The principles of equitable access to information
Responsible use of information technology
How to identify and establish the purpose for reading
How to recognize the need for information
How to be a competent and self-motivated reader
Speaking & listening skills

Library Resource Skills

Research skills

Effective & efficient access to information
Accurate and creative use of information
Critical & competent evaluation of information

Literature Appreciation

Identifying essential and non-essential information
Critical selection of materials
Establishing the purpose for reading
Contribute to discussions
Appreciation of literature & Newbery Award winning books

Electronic Resources

Electronic resources for reference and research
Internet skills

Grade 6

Library Procedures:

Rights and responsibilities
The principles of equitable access to information
Responsible use of information technology and ethical behavior
Purpose for reading
Need for information
How to recognize the need for information
How to be a competent and self-motivated reader
Speaking & listening skills

Library Resource Skills

Research skills
Effective & efficient access to information
Accurate and creative use of information
Critical & competent evaluation of information

Literature Appreciation

How to identify and establish the purpose for reading
Speaking and listening skills
Identifying essential and non-essential information
Appreciation of literature

Electronic Resources

Electronic resources for reference and research
Internet skills